PLAYGROUNDS FOR CHILDREN IN THE SOUTHERN PART OF OGDEN MAY BE PURCHASED

"In order to establish a working basis in the movement to create a children's playground in the southern part of the city," B. H. Goddard, real estate man, submitted prices to tracts of land lying adjacent to the Washington school site, to the board of city commissioners this morning.

The proposition stated that the William Savage property, 145 feet wide and 350 feet deep, could be purchased for $5000, $1000 cash and balance in payments; also that the Goddard tract of approximately one acre adjoining could be purchased for $2000, $700 cash and the balance in payments. The communication stated both tracts were ideally situated for inclusion with the Washington school grounds and could be converted into a children's playground at a nominal cost.

Mayor Browning stated that he was in favor of locating playgrounds adjacent to the school sites because of the fact that schools usually are centrally located; that it would be easy for a supervisor to handle the children; and that school is in session nine months in the year. Commissioner Jones stated that he had suggested to the board of education that the city and board of education acquire separate title to such property as might be decided upon, if a purchase were made, but that the equipment be owned jointly by the city and the board of education.

The communication from Mr. Goddard was referred, pending a further investigation. It is not known when the matter will be taken up for final disposition. It is known, however, that the board of education and the city commissioners are seriously considering the purchase of a tract in the southern part of town to be converted into a children's playground.

WILSON STUDIES HERTLING SPEECH

Central Powers Reluctant to Accept Principles for Which the Entente Contend.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—German Chancellor von Hertling's speech to the reichstag was studied today by President Wilson and state department officials without any official indication of how it was regarded, or that it would be made the basis for a further step in the president's custom of discussing the subject of peace before congress.

Powers Reluctant to Reaccept Principles.

Officials who read the address thought it served to emphasize a point recently made by President Wilson that while the central powers appeared to accept the general broad altruistic principles for which the entente allies and America were contending when it came to the arrangements of details the central powers appeared to be reluctant to apply those principles.

They noted von Hertling's references to Ireland, India and Egypt and regarded them as calculated to create disorder between the entente allies and continue a deception of the German people, who apparently believe the military party is willing to make peace without annexations and indemnities.

No Hope of Discussion.

Von Hertling's suggestions of a conference of the belligerents apparently meets with no greater favor than heretofore and officials see not the slightest hope of a "round table discussion" in advance of a complete acceptance by the central powers of the broad principles upon which the entente is willing to consider peace terms.

EFFORT MADE TO GET MARY WILSON OUT OF COUNTY JAIL

Attorney W. F. Jensen, counsel for Mary Wilson, charged with obtaining money under false pretense in that she promised to marry a Hindu, Amer Singh, and failed to make good, made a partially successful effort in municipal court this morning to obtain his client's release.

"The sheriff has advised me that he has no fit place at the jail to keep this young girl," said Attorney Jensen with considerable spirit. "She is literally languishing over there in a dungeon. I ask that the court reset her preliminary for Saturday, March 2, instead of March 8. Also, I ask that the bond be reduced."

Because County Attorney Charles Farr made some incidental reference that failed to please Attorney Jensen, he became more thoroughly aroused and insisted upon an immediate hearing. He also made an impromptu motion that the case be dismissed.

"For some reason the county is seeking to delay this case," the lawyer declared with fervor. "The first fundamentals of law prove the prisoner is held contrary to law. The information in itself pleads a crime that every principle of law shows to be merely a civil action—a breach of promise contracting to perform some act in the future does not constitute a crime."

Judge Barker stated that he would take the matter of passing upon a defective information immediately and probably decide today whether he would release the prisoner. He formally set the hearing for March 1, instead of March 2 as asked by the attorney for the defendant. He declined, however, to reduce the bond.

The information alleges that the defendant, by reason of her promise to marry the Hindu, had received money and jewelry amounting to several hundred dollars. She has been in jail for about one week.

BOX CAR CASES ARE IN POLICE COURT

The preliminary examination of M. E. McCain, charged with robbing a box car and stealing auto tires, was set this morning in municipal court for Saturday. He was released yesterday on $500 bond.

The preliminary hearings of Otto Blair and Andrew Hewett, also charged with box car robberies, was set several days ago for Thursday, February 28. Fred Bremer, against whom a similar charge has been filed, will be given a preliminary Tuesday, March 12. Bremer's bond has been fixed at $300.

PEACE AGREEMENT IS INEFFECTIVE

Charles R Crane Sees No Value Whatever in Treaty of Soap Box Orator.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Charles R. Crane of Chicago, member of the American mission to Russia, a White House caller today, characterized the collapse of Russia as a catastrophe and pronounced the peace agreement with Germany as wholly ineffective.

"Trotzky and Lenin," said Mr. Crane, "have shown the world that six months' practice on a soap box on the East Side of New York does not fit one to govern an empire. The peace agreement might as well have been signed in New York insofar as its effectiveness is concerned."

BOX ELDER MEN ARE TO BE ENTERTAINED TOMORROW

O. J. Stilwell, secretary of the Publicity bureau of the Weber club, formally invited Mayor T. Samuel Browning, Commissioner Chris Flygare, Commissioner Miles L. Jones and City Engineer Joseph Tracy to the banquet and good roads meeting to be held at the Weber club rooms tomorrow night.

Secretary Stilwell stated that the Weber club will act as host to a delegation of Box Elder county good roads boosters and that a better and more adequate system of roads will be the principal topic of the meeting. The city officials are requested to attend as special guests.

The club is seeking to enlist the co-operation of farmers, business men, county and city officials and all other good roads enthusiasts of Weber and Box Elder counties and thus assure success of the movement.

CITY SETTLES WITH PARROTT BROS.

On recommendation of the city legal department, the board of commissioners today accepted the compromise proposal of Parrott Brothers, paving contractors, and settled the case for $1500.

The case has been pending in the supreme court on appeal from a jury verdict of $2500 returned upon trial in the district court.

The suit is a development of the Lincoln avenue paving, between Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth streets.

EVANSTON MAN IS TRAILED TO OGDEN

Louis Dogs, a Greek, who had been trailed from Evanston to Ogden by Steve Kacheras, also a Greek of Evanston, was arrested here last night by Officer W. W. Richardson. Kacheras claims that Dogs robbed his son of a gold watch.

It is claimed that Dogs is under $1000 bond for appearance in Evanston on a charge of gambling, and he will be returned to Wyoming for prosecution.

WM. S. HART IN 'THE GOLD DECK' RETURNS TO ORPHEUM TONIGHT

So many requests have been made to Manager Goss of the Orpheum that those who did not see William S. Hart's big picture, "The Gold Deck," to bring the picture back for a second engagement. He has secured the big production for tonight for the night only. This will positively be the last time this great picture will be shown, so don't miss it. It's a picture different from all other Hart pictures. It's a story of the days of old with its gambling halls, hold-ups and bad men—Advertisement.

WIFE AND CHILDREN TO BE SUPPORTED

Judge A. W. Agee denied the complaint for divorce of James W. White against Mary White yesterday. The court awarded the defendant a decree of separate maintenance and the care and custody of two minor children. He ordered the plaintiff also to contribute $7.50 per week toward the support of the children and to pay the attorney's fees for his wife and the costs of the suit.

The couple was married August 1910, at Mant, Utah. White based his complaint on the grounds of cruelty.

DAVID SWAIN CASE COMES UP MARCH 10

David Swain, charged with reckless driving and arrested at Twenty-fifth street and Washington avenue, several weeks ago following a serious accident, will be tried in municipal court March 12. That is, Swain will be tried at that time if the military authorities at Fort Douglas, who now have him in custody as a deserter suspect, are finished with him.

Swain was arrested last week as a suspected deserter and turned over to the Fort Douglas commandant. He was employed as an oil stock salesman while in Ogden.

Members of the United Mine Workers must raise $800,000 for bonds to appeal a $600,000 verdict against them in an Arkansas Federal court.
